For two days in July, the Rachel Carson Bridge (9th Street Bridge) in Downtown Pittsburgh will transform into Picklesburgh, highlighted by a giant flying pickle balloon. Picklesburgh is an annual festival that celebrates pickling in all its glorious incarnations and goes beyond the dill pickle to include international dishes and handcrafted foods from local chefs; "how-to" demos; a selection of artisan cocktails; pickle themed merchandise, live music, and even a competitive pickle juice drinking contest.

Meet Your New Liaisons

Hello Beautiful neighbors,

I am Lauren B your Community Liaison here at NCFH to encourage your next move; so, WHATS YOUR NEXT MOVE? Our first lady quotes "You may not always have a comfortable life and you will not always be able to solve all of the world's problems at once but don't ever underestimate the importance you can have because history has shown us that courage can be contagious and hope can take on a life of its own." – Michelle Obama

Hi Everyone,

My name is Jessica Sayles and I am one of the new Community Liaison's that have joined the Northside Coalition for Fair Housing. I am excited for the journey ahead and look forward to learning new things and sharing my gifts with everyone I meet! If there is anything I can assist you with, feel free to stop in, or email me at Jessica@northsidetenants.org!

Hello,

My name is Stacy Robinson. I would like to take this moment to introduce myself as one of the new Community Liaison's at the Northside Coalition for fair housing. As I get settled in my new position, I look forward to meeting each of you in person. I am also excited about the new projects we will be working on together in the future. If you have any questions or just like to meet in person please feel free to stop past my office which is located at 1821 Brighton rd. first floor. Sincerely, Stacy Robinson.
